SQUIRE FOUND MILLER GUILTY

Case Heard This Afternoon Before
James Kratzer—Is Appealed to Circuit Court.

FIVE DOLLARS AND COSTS

Sorrell Through Attorneys Young and Young, Filed Civil Action
Demanding $1000.

Clen Miller was today fined five dollars and costs by Squire Kratzer for assault and battery on Charles Sorrell. The case was appealed to the circuit court and Miller was released on $50 bond. The case attracted no little interest and the court room was crowded with interested spectators.

The State was represented by Prosecutor Dennis O'Neil and George Young. Several witnesses were introduced, among whom was Sorrell, the injured party. His testimony was to show the extent of the injuries received and his relations with Miller. It was brought out that he and Miller had always been friends and that the attack of Miller was unlooked for and unexpected. The State introduced Dr. Blount and he testified that Sorrell was not injured internally, the chief wound being a cut on his cheek. The State closed its case and the defense was content without calling a single witness.

Following the verdict of Squire Kratzer, Young & Young, attorneys for Sorrell, filed civil action against Miller in the circuit court demanding $1000. The complaint alleges that on the afternoon of March 29, Miller, unlawfully and maliciously struck Sorrell. It further alleges that Miller stamped him in the face with the heel of his shoe and cut a deep wound in his cheek. The complaint also states that Sorrell was rendered unconscious and that Miller defied anyone to aid in helping him arise.

It is said that Sorrell was found in this position by the police and because of these injuries the plaintiff has been ill in bed for ten days and for his injuries, doctor's bill and inability to work, demands $1000.

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TOMORROW

Mrs. Everett McFarlan, Daughter of John R. Smiley of This County, is Dead at Dunreith.

The funeral services of Mrs. Everett McFarlan, who died at her home, west of Dunreith, Sunday, will be held at the Dunreith church tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock. The body will be buried in the Knightstown cemetery.

Mrs. McFarlan was the daughter of John R. Smiley of this county and was about thirty-five years old. She was born in Fayette county and spent most of her life with her grandparents, near Connersville after the death of her mother, which occurred when she was yet a young child. About fifteen years ago she was married to Everett McFarlan and moved to Dunreith, where she spent the remainder of her life. She is survived by a husband and two children, besides her father.

KNIGHTSTOWN TO VOTE APRIL 29

Henry County Commissioners Fix the Time For Settling Liquor Question in That Town.

"DRYS" RELY ON RURAL VOTE

The Henry county commissioners yesterday set the date for the local option election in Wayne township, Henry county, in which Knightstown is located, for Saturday, April 29. The commissioners also granted the petition of the "drys" to withhold the granting of two saloon licenses to Peter Wagoner and Alex McCarty until May 1.

It is said that the sentiment of the Knightstown business men is unfavorable to the "dry" cause, since Knightstown will be surrounded by wet Rushville, wet Greenfield and wet New Castle.

The drys, so an anti-saloon leader from Knightstown states, will devote their energies to lining up the farmer vote. They believe that the rural residents will vote against the saloons and consequently special attention will be devoted to getting out that vote.

William Alsman and Charles Leisure were appointed viewers for the J. E. Caldwell road in Jackson and Posey townships at the meeting of the county commissioners yesterday afternoon, when the petition for the road was presented.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH STEALING

Mrs. Sarah Richie of Milroy Arrested
For Taking 20 Chickens From Philander Winter.

WAS RELEASED ON $500 BOND

Trial Set For Friday Morning in
Squire Richie's Court—Fowls
Valued at $12.

Mrs. Sarah Richie of Milroy, charged with stealing twenty chickens from Philander Winter, was arrested this morning on an affidavit sworn out in Squire Richie's court. She was released on $500 bond and the trial set for nine o'clock Friday morning.

Winter missed his chickens Sunday morning and suspicioned Mrs. Richie. He went before Squire Richie yesterday morning and obtained a search warrant. It is said that Mrs. Richie's brother saw him go there and immediately notified the woman. It was then that Winter's chickens began to come home and in a few minutes they were all back in his yard. Winter claims to have three witnesses who saw her drive the fowls back to his house. The twenty chickens were valued at $12.

Prosecuting Attorney Dennis O'Neil was called down to Milroy to investigate and had the affidavit for her arrest made out ready to serve. The officials went to the home of Mrs. Richie, but could get no answer to their calls. The house was darkened and the doors locked. It was said that she left suddenly for a visit with relatives. But the people of Milroy believe she was hiding in the house. The officers were in favor of breaking into the house, but O'Neil told them they had no right to do that and so they went away. This morning Mrs. Richie gave herself to the officers voluntarily.

Mrs. Richie and Winters are cousins and live only a short distance from each other. Mrs. Richie is under arrest and Winter has all of his chickens back, is the way the case stands and the people there are watching the outcome with interest.

Prosecutor O'Neil said this morning that Mrs. Richie had a peculiar fancy for appropriating chickens and had been caught in the act a number of times, but managed to escape. It is said that she is quite elusive, at one time being caught in a chicken house by five men but got away. On another occasion it is said she took some fowls from a poultry wagon passing her house and that the driver caught her when his attention was attracted by the chickens squawking.

NEW LAWYER IS EMPLOYED

John Rynerson of Columbus Has Been Employed to Assist in Noble Defense.

IS UNEARTHING EVIDENCE

Declines to Make Public New Facts
Which he Declares Have Been Found.

Attorney John Rynerson of this city, has been engaged to assist the law firm of Osborn & Harding of Greensburg in the defense of Ben Noble, a young Decatur county man who is charged with the murder of Albert Sprague, his employer, says the Columbus Republican.

Attorneys for Noble are seeking new evidence upon which to base a motion for a new trial, to be filed at Rushville within a few days. They came here and employed Attorney Rynerson too look after the Bartholomew county end of the search and although Mr. Rynerson says he has unearthed some things that would be of considerable interest he declines to make them public now.

The defense is working on the theory that something has been hidden all the times and that there is evidence to be found in Bartholomew county that will throw sufficient light on mysterious things of the past to warrant the granting of a new trial. The defense continues to strenuously insist that Noble did not kill Sprague.

At the present time Noble stands convicted of the murder of Sprague and is under a life sentence as a result of his conviction at Rushville.

IS HELD IN JAIL UNDER $5,000 BOND

Hervey Franks of St. Paul, Who Attacked Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Alexander is Given Hearing.

TRIAL WILL BE HELD FRIDAY

Hervey Franks, 30 years old, an erstwhile bartender of St. Paul, is held in the Greensburg jail on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill, preferred after he murderously attacked Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Alexander, an aged and respected couple at their home in Greensburg. A preliminary hearing was given Franks yesterday afternoon by the mayor and his bond was fixed at $5000, which he was unable to furnish. His trial will be held Friday afternoon at one o'clock.

Sunday afternoon Franks entered the Alexander dwelling and made his way to the second floor, where the physician has his study. Dr. Alexander arose to meet him and Franks knocked him down, then dragged him down the stairway and attempted to throw him from a window. Mrs. Alexander went to her husband's aid with a cane. Franks seized the cane and broke it on the aged woman's head. Neighbors went to the rescue and Franks was arrested. He gives no reason for the assault.

Dr. Alexander is 80 years old while his wife is 75. Mrs. Alexander is an aunt of Booth Tarkington of Indianapolis.

FAIL TO GRANT LICENSES TODAY

Seven Applicants Anxiously Await Decision—Number Not to Exceed Six.

LET POOR FARM CONTRACTS

Late this afternoon the county commissioners had not granted any saloon licenses and seen applicants anxiously awaited the decision. Thomas Humes, president of the board, stated this afternoon that the number of saloon licenses granted in Rushville would not exceed six. It has been said around the city that the commissioners contemplated changing the limit and allowing more saloons in Rushville, but the statement of Mr. Humes settles the question. William Price and James Brooks presented their applications this morning.

The commissioners this afternoon allowed the contracts for supplies for the county poor asylum. The Weeks Fresh Meat and Provision Company was awarded the contract for meat; Ben A. Cox, for shoes; Callaghan, Oliver & Company, for dry goods; Bliss & Cowing, for clothing, and Havens Brothers for groceries.

PROSPERITY IS ON EVERY HAND

Predicted That There Will be More
Building This Summer Than Men to do Work.

TRAVELING MEN NOTE CHANGE

Many Waiting For Possession of Lots
so They May Build—To Build Sidewalks.

That Rushville is facing a more bright and rosy industrial future than ever before in its history is evidenced on every hand. Business men as well as all other residents of Rushville who are interested in the future welfare of the city are very optimistic and believe that a new Rushville has sprung up.

No better reason for those conditions can be found than the successful consummation of the lot sale which located the fifty thousand dollar furniture factory in Rushville and which started a new era of industrial improvement in Rushville which is not to stop with even that. It is predicted on all sides that greater things are in store for Rushville.

Traveling men who have been visiting Rushville for years say that they never saw the city looking so prosperous and feeling so gladly over its recent conquests. They say that bills are collected easily and that business prosperity and success is apparent everywhere. Traveling men who have been calling on local business men for a number of years, declare that Rushville is taking on new life.

The new addition to Rushville, which was brought about by the sale of the lots, promises to outrival some sections of the city very soon. A number of persons who bought lots are anxiously awaiting the time when they can gain possession of their property and build there. It is predicted that there will be more building this spring and summer than there will be carpenters to do the work. When the factory is finally erected and men are hired, the influx of people will cause a general demand for houses. There are few desirable houses in Rushville that are empty, as has been proved by statistics taken by the postoffice department.

The Stewart-Tompkins addition will soon be an improved one as already lot purchasers are making arrangements to better their lots so that they may build there and the lots will bring a better price. The purchasers who drew lots in Perkins street have banded together and are making arrangements to build cement sidewalks just as soon as the addition is platted into streets and is ready for the owners to take possession.

The local men who financed the factory are making active preparations to build at once and today the first trip was made to get ideas of modern methods used in erecting factory structures. A committee composed of Warder Wyatt, Charles Baker, A. L. Stewart and R. L. Tompkins, this morning went to Frankfort to view the McDougal kitchen cabinet factory.

If you expect to do any painting, you are interested—you should be—in the quality of the paint to be used.

In any given job of painting, labor represents practically two-thirds, material one-third the cost.

It stands to reason that with so much expense in labor, the enduring quality of the paint is all important.

Why have the painting done unless the protection and durability of the job is sought?

How is one to determine the true value and obtain paint that may be depended upon for durability?

HANNA'S GREEN SEAL PAINT IS NOT A SECRET. This paint has the printed formula on every package.

The makers have confidence and take pride in the quality and tell the public the composition of the paint.

Official Report of the Terrible Mortality in Manchuria.

Washington, April 4.—Mail dispatches from Mukden give official statistics of plague cases in that city and other parts of Manchuria. The total number of cases in Mukden up to Feb. 14 was reported as 1,043. The total number of deaths up to Feb. 18 was given as 1,028. The total number of deaths in Manchuria up to Feb. 15 was given as 12,033, but this is probably only a rough estimate and does not in any case include the deaths in the towns along the Russian and Japanese railways, which probably amount to as many more.

The plague has appeared at nearly every town along the railways from Changchun west to Chinchou and south to Liaoyang. The number of deaths daily at Changchun is estimated at 200.

Indianapolis, April 4.—For violation of the sixteen-hour law, regarding the length of time members of a train crew may be continuously employed. Judgments totalling $225 against the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern Railway company have been rendered in federal court by Judge Anderson. The suit brought by District Attorney Miller to recover the statutory penalties, charged that the defendant company ran a train engaged in interstate commerce from Cone, Ill., to Washington, Ind., violating the law by keeping the engineer, fireman and conductor on duty longer than the statutory maximum of hours.

The company after filing pleadings testing the technical aspects of the case, filed an answer admitting the charges, and judgments were entered. Five other cases against railroads for violating the "endurance statute" are pending. The L. & N., shortly after the suits were filed, attacked the constitutionality of the statute on the grounds of class legislation and unreasonable and unjust classification, but Judge Anderson held otherwise.

AN INSANITY PLEA

Defense of Man Charged With Killing Two Policemen.

Anderson, Ind., April 4.—James Walker, aged twenty-seven, of Alexandria, under indictment for murder in the first degree for the killing of two policemen of Alexandria on the night of March 4, while resisting arrest, is making a fight for his life on the plea of insanity.

The trial of Walker has begun in the Madison circuit court. Before the examination of the talesmen began the attorney for paupers, appointed to defend Walker, filed a plea of insanity.

Walker's counsel says testimony will be given by experts and others to show that Walker was insane when he killed Patrolman Kirkman and a few minutes later shot Chief of Police Ellis, who died the day after.

THE NEW LAWS

It is Expected They Will Become Effective About April 25.

Indianapolis, April 4.—L. G. Ellingham, secretary of state, who has charge of compiling the acts of the recent general assembly, expects the state printer to begin the distribution of the acts on Monday, April 10. Ten days, it is estimated, will be necessary to distribute all the books and to receive the receipts from the various county clerks, to whom they will be sent. It is believed that the governor will be able to issue his proclamation declaring the new laws effective, by not later than April 25. Thirty thousand volumes of the acts will be published.

THE LAW IN DOUBT

Shall Loogootee Have Five Saloons or Only Four?

Shoals, Ind., April 4.—One of the most peculiar situations relative to saloon licenses yet reported has come to light in Martin county. At the last election in Loogootee the total vote received by the candidates for mayor, the highest vote, was 499. There were reported nine ballots spoiled in casting. The question which has arisen is whether Loogootee will have four saloons or five saloons. Attorneys are divided in opinion as to whether the law means the total number of votes counted or the total number of ballots cast.

Bad Wreck on the Wabash.

Fort Wayne, Ind., April 4.—A passenger train on the Chicago and Toledo branch of the Wabash railway was derailed at Eddy, Ind. The engine, combination car and chair car were derailed, but not overturned. Three passengers and three trainmen were injured, none of them fatally. Engineer Luxton was pinned beneath the wreckage of the locomotive, and was not extricated for more than three hours. Spreading rails caused the wreck.

Fled From Heinous Charge.

Bloomington, Ind., April 4.—Squire Thomas, aged sixty, is a fugitive, following the death of his seventeen-year-old stepdaughter, Ethel Stewart, from blood poisoning. The girl made a statement charging that her stepfather had mistreated her since she was twelve years old. Physicians told the girl that she must die, and she selected pall-bearers and flower-bearers from among her school friends.

Chicago's city election is in progress today.

Who Has Come From England With a Message to Gotham.

"WHAT A HARVEST FOR THE REAPER"

This Is Dr. Jowett's First Impression of Gotham.

New York, April 4.—The Rev. John Henry Jowett's first message of his new ministry in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church was on "The Compassion of Christ for the Multitudes," and indicated the minister, who has been said to be the "greatest living preacher in England," would bend his energies toward developing the institutional and home missionary work of the church along conservative lines.

"I wonder if I am right in asking what the Lord would say now," said Dr. Jowett. "If He were to come to New York He would find men worried, dissatisfied and exhausted. If He saw the crowd He would say, 'Fainting sheep. What a harvest for the reaper!'"

AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

GENERAL OFFICES
NEW YORK AND CHICAGO
BRANCHES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIES

With a $25,000,000 capitol to rebuild, statesmanship is going to be a paying proposition in New York State for a while.

If the fire in the Albany capitol only burned up that Senate seat that has made such a row, the voters will be satisfied.

The haughty spirit of the lords of creation is brought low once a year, April 1, on being regularly fooled by their wives before breakfast.

A thousand killed in the Mexican battle. Mr. Diaz will have to do something besides kissing the babies and giving band concerts to smooth over this ruction.

President Diaz talks of resigning since they stoned the palace, but our senators continue calm while the Insurgents are pitching vegetables into the parlor windows.

The success of two bandits in Mexico in securing $12,000 for the return of a kidnapped child, will, it is feared, encourage the infant stealing industry there and elsewhere.

Our exchange editor was caught asleep at his desk several times the past month, but this may have been because the Congressional Record was suspended until April 3.

President Taft's message, due today, will be brief. This may have resulted from our frank statement that we would not hire him for a reporter until he learned to boil it down.

Nothing adds so much to a city's attractiveness as a street lined on each side with tall and majestic shade trees, well selected, that are well trimmed and well cared for. Just remember, Mr. Property Owner, that arbor day comes soon and try to put out one or more trees that will add to the beauty of some portion of Rushville.

It may be that the present day pace is responsible for influenza, gastritis, neuritis, telephonitis, petrolitis, secretaritis, and what not, but it is still noticed that life insurance companies and their agents are just as anxious for business as ever. Few of us are inclined to slacken our pace and the race for honors, glory or fortune continues, and some, even, profess to be interested only from the standpoint of love for the work itself. It may, indeed, be better to wear out than to rust out.

The worst of the Albany state house fire is the loss of the State library with priceless documents, records, and historical books.

A building that serves as the vortex for the state's political life, with a horde of politicians and petitioners and committees, consuming cigars and throwing matches into waste baskets, is about as unfavorable a place for the storage of important records as could be imagined.

Copies of all important records are usually preserved, and the accumulated wisdom of the past is not dissipated by the power of the flame. But something more than a sentimental loss takes place when a historic document passes away.

The older generation had its sharp limitation of narrowness and ignorance. But it had grand qualities of simple living, honest painstaking industry, and patriotic fervor, and every scrap of paper that makes the life of the old worthies vivid is priceless.

Somebody ought to catch that groundhog and put him in irons. Hot irons at that.

A ferry boat would not be bad business in Second street.

That would be fair enough if it really was fair, but the fare part would cut an important figure in the receipts.

Rumor has estimated from the south side that a housefly, 1911 model, has been caught, breaking the speed limits. A trusty messenger has been dispatched to slay him.

You must take into consideration the power of the press in the war against the pesky pest. A newspaper, carefully folded, makes an excellent implement of warfare.

"Some people, like olives," opines the Kokomo Tribune, "are an acquired taste."

We humbly beg your premission to mention that clean-up day was not even whispered in this column today.

The county commissioners have prefigured settled the saloon question; the Mexican "war" is nearing the end; the brick streets are to be finished in the course of a few years; St Paul promises to crawl into its hole soon and the area of universal peace seems to be dawning.

College professor asserts that people ought to dress in harmony with their hair. That makes it bad for the bald-headed man.

CHAPTER XVII.

A Call on the Warden.

The restful silence of night lay over the great prison. Here and there in the grim corridors a guard dozed in the glare of an electric light; and in the office, too, a desk light glimmered where the warden sat at his desk, poring over a report. Once he glanced up at the clock—it was five minutes of eleven—and then he went on with his reading.

After a little the silence was broken by the whir of the clock and the first sharp stroke of the hour; and at just that moment the door from the street opened and a man entered. He was rather tall and slender, and a sinister black mask hid his face from the quickly raised eyes of the warden. For a bare fraction of a second the two men stared at each other, then, instinctively, the warden's right hand moved toward the open drawer of his desk where a revolver lay, and his left toward several electrically connected levers. The intruder noted both gestures, and, unarmed himself, stood silent. The warden was first to speak.

"Well, what is it?"

"You have a prisoner here, Pietro Petrozinni," was the reply, in a pleasant voice. "I have come to demand his release."

The warden's right hand was raised above the desk top, and the revolver in it clicked warningly.

"You have come to demand his release, eh?" he queried. He still sat motionless, with his eyes fixed on the black mask. "How did you pass the outside guard?"

"He was bribed," was the ready response. "Now, Warden," the masked intruder continued peacefully, "it would be much more pleasant all around and there would be less personal danger in it for both of us if you would release Signor Petrozinni without question. I may add that no bribe was offered to you because your integrity was beyond question."

"Thank you," said the warden grimly, "and it shall remain so as long as I have this." He tapped on the desk with the revolver.

"Oh, that isn't loaded," said the masked man quietly.

One quick glance at the weapon showed the warden that the cartridges had been drawn! His teeth closed with a snap at the treachery of it, and with his left hand he pulled back one of the levers—that which should arouse the jailers, turnkeys and guards. Instead of the insistent clangor which he expected, there was silence.

"That wire has been cut," the stranger volunteered.

With clenched teeth the warden pulled the police alarm.

"And that wire was cut, too," the stranger explained.

The warden came to his feet with white face and nails biting into the palms of his hands. He still held the revolver as he advanced upon the masked man threateningly.

"Not too close, now," warned the intruder, with a sudden hardening of his voice. "Believe me, it would be best for you to release this man, because it must be done, pleasantly or otherwise."

"I Want Your Prisoner, Signor Petrozinni—You Will Release Him at Once!"

wise. I have no desire to injure you, still less do I intend that you shall injure me; and it would be needless for either of us to make a personal matter of it. I want your prisoner, Signor Petrozinni—you will release him at once! That's all!"

The warden paused, dazed, incredulous before the audacity of it, while he studied two calm eyes which peered at him through the slits of the mask.

"And if I don't release him?" he demanded at last, fiercely.

"Then I shall take him," was the reply. "It has been made impossible for you to give an alarm," the stranger went on. "The very men on whom you most depended have been bought, and even if they were within sound of your voice now they wouldn't respond. One of your assistants who has been here for years unloaded the revolver in the desk there, and less than an hour ago cut the prison alarm wire. I, personally, cut the police alarm outside the building. So you see!"

As yet there was no weapon in sight, save the unloaded revolver in the warden's hand; at no time had the stranger's voice been raised. His tone was a perfectly normal one.

"Besides yourself there are only five other men employed here who are now awake," the masked man continued. "These are four inner guards and the outer guard. They have all been bought—the turnkeys at five thousand dollars each, and the outer guard at seven thousand. The receipt of all of this money is conditional upon the release of Signor Petrozinni, therefore it is to their interest to aid me as against you. I am telling you all this, frankly and fully, to make you see how futile any resistance would be."

"But who—who is this Signor Petrozinni, that such powerful influences should be brought to bear in his behalf?" demanded the bewildered warden.

"He is a man who can command a vast fortune—and Senor Alvarez is at the point of death. That, I think, makes it clear. Now, if you'll sit down, please!"

"Sit down?" bellowed the warden.

Suddenly he was seized by a violent, maddening rage. He took one step forward and raised the empty revolver to strike. The masked man moved slightly to one side and his clenched fist caught the warden on the point of the chin. The official went down without a sound and lay still, inert. A moment later the door leading into the corridor of the prison opened, and Signor Petrozinni, accompanied by one of the guards, entered the warden's office. The masked man glanced around at them, and with a motion of his head indicated the door leading to the street. They passed through, closing the door behind them.

For a little time the intruder stood staring down at the still body, then he went to the telephone and called police headquarters.

"There has been a jail delivery at the prison," he said in answer to the "hello" of the desk-sergeant at the other end of the wire. "Better send some of your men up to investigate."

"Who is that?" came the answering question.

The stranger replaced the receiver on the hook, stripped off his black mask, dropped it on the floor beside the motionless warden, and went out. It was Mr. Grimm!

CHAPTER XVIII.

Notice to Leave.

At fifteen minutes of midnight when Miss Thorne, followed by Signor Petrozinni, entered the sitting-room of her apartments in the hotel and turned up the light they found Mr. Grimm already there. He rose courteously. At sight of him Miss Thorne's face went deathly white, and the escaped prisoner turned toward the door again.

"I would advise that you stay, your

FOR A LONG LIFE

Fresh air and exercise, with proper food and a sufficient amount of sleep are the essentials.

Under such a regime of living, germs can not develop and many diseases are prevented.

Should the system require a tonic, take only such as you know their ingredients—such as Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the health-giving properties of the cod's livers, with all of the useless grease eliminated and tonic iron added, happily blended in a mild, medicinal wine.

For this reason Vinol is regarded as one of the greatest body builders and invigorators for aged people. It invigorates and builds them up and keeps them up.

We sell Vinol with the understanding that if it does not give satisfaction the price will be returned. F. B. Johnson & Co., Druggists, Rushville, Indiana.

Highness," said Mr. Grimm coldly. Signor Petrozinni paused, amazed. "You will merely subject yourself to the humiliation of arrest if you attempt to leave. The house is guarded by a dozen men."

"Your Highness?" Miss Thorne repeated blankly. "You are assuming a great deal, aren't you, Mr. Grimm?" "I don't believe," and Mr. Grimm's listless eyes were fixed on those of the escaped prisoner, "I don't believe that Prince Benedetto d'Abruzzi will deny his identity?"

There was one of those long tense silences when eyes challenge eyes, when wit is pitted against wit, and mind is hauled around to a new, and sometimes unattractive, view of a situation. Miss Thorne stood silent with rigid features, colorless as marble; but slowly a sneer settled about the lips of Signor Petrozinni that was, and he sat down.

"You seem to know everything, Mr. Grimm," he taunted.

"I try to know everything, your Highness," was the reply. Mr. Grimm was still standing. "I know, for instance, that one week ago the plot which had your freedom for its purpose was born; I know the contents of every letter that passed between you and Miss Thorne here, notwithstanding the invisible ink; I know that four days ago several thousand dollars was smuggled in to you concealed in a basket of fruit; I know, with that money, you bribed your way out, while Miss Thorne or one of her agents bribed the guard in front; I know that the escape was planned for to-night, and that the man who was delegated to take charge of it is now locked in my office under guard. It may interest you to know that it was I who took his place and made the escape possible. I know that much!"

"You—you—" the prince burst out suddenly. "You aided me to escape?"

Miss Thorne was staring, staring at them with her eyes widely distended, and her red lips slightly parted.

"Why did you assist him?" she demanded.

"Details are tiresome, Miss Thorne," replied Mr. Grimm with the utmost courtesy. "There is one other thing I know—that the Latin compact will not be signed in the United States."

The prince's eyes met Miss Thorne's inquiringly, and she shook her head. The sneer was still playing about his mouth.

"Anything else of special interest that you know?" he queried.

"Yes, of interest to both you and Miss Thorne. That is merely if the Latin compact is signed anywhere, the English-speaking countries of the world might construe it as a casus belli and strike soon enough, and hard enough, to put an end to it once for all."

Again there was silence for a little while. Slowly the prince's eyes were darkening, and a shadow flitted across Miss Thorne's face. The prince rose impatiently.

"Well, what is the meaning of all this? Are you going to take me back to prison?"

"No," said Mr. Grimm. He glanced at his watch. "I will give each of you one-half hour to pack your belongings. We must catch a train at one o'clock."

AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR.

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price.

"Leave the city?" gasped

Thorne.

"Impossible!" exclaimed the prince. "One-half hour," said Mr. Grimm coldly.

"But—but it's out of the question," expostulated Miss Thorne.

"One-half hour," repeated Mr. Grimm. He didn't dare to meet those wonderful blue-gray eyes now. "A special car with private compartments will be attached to the regular train, and the only inconvenience to you will be the fact that the three of us will be compelled to sit up all night. Half a dozen other Secret Service men will be on the train with us."

And then the prince's entire manner underwent a change.

"Mr. Grimm," he said earnestly, "it is absolutely necessary that I remain in Washington for another week—remain here even if I am locked up again—lock me up again if you like. I can't sign compacts in prison."

"Twenty-five minutes," replied Mr. Grimm quietly.

"But here," exclaimed the prince explosively, "I have credentials which will insure my protection in spite of your laws."

"I know that," said Mr. Grimm placidly. "Credentials of that nature cannot be presented at midnight, and you will not be here to-morrow to present them. The fact that you have those credentials, your Highness, is one reason why you must leave Washington now, to-night."

WOULDN'T STAND FOR THE NEGRO TROOPS

Texans Secure An Order for Their Withdrawal.

Washington, April 4.—According to an announcement made by Representative Garner of Texas, following a conference with President Taft at the White House, the negro troops now stationed at San Antonio are to be withdrawn. Representative Garner protested against the presence of the negro soldiers at San Antonio, declaring that they had been the cause of a good deal of trouble in the Texas city.

As soon as the president was informed of the facts, according to Mr. Garner, he said that he would direct that the negro regiment—the Ninth cavalry—be assigned to another station. According to Mr. Garner's representations, and by him conveyed to the president, the Ninth cavalrymen have showed resentment over the law requiring them to ride in Jim Crow cars. As a result there have been scenes of disorder in San Antonio and citizens of that city urged the Texas delegation to ask the government to transfer the Ninth to some other station.

None of the Texas members feared a repetition of the Brownsville affair, where negro troopers "shot up" the town, provoking one of the extraordinary incidents of the Roosevelt administration. The orders in regard to the Ninth will be carried out at once, according to Mr. Garner.

Results of Monday's Option Elections in Michigan.

Detroit, Mich., April 4.—Anti-Saloon Leagues were thoroughly beaten in Michigan Monday. The dries now have a total of thirty-eight counties, a loss of two. Every big county went wet, and these dry counties which stayed dry did so by reduced majorities.

Forty-five counties wet have a total population of 1,978,764, and thirty-eight dry counties have only 880,185.

HERE'S HOPE FOR "SUFFRAGETTES"

London Enters Lists As Woman's Champion.
HAS A HISTORIC PARALLEL

Action of the London City Corporation in Petitioning Parliament to Pass the Suffrage Bill Recalls the Famous Petition of Another Lord Mayor Which Secured the Release of Land Leaguers.

London, April 4.—The corporation of the city has entered the lists as a champion of woman's suffrage. At a special meeting it passed a resolution by a vote of 22 to 9, which is to be sealed with the city's official seal. "We hereby petition parliament," says the resolution, "to pass at the present session the woman's suffrage bill now before it, that the lord mayor together with the other civic officers, go to present the petition at the bar of the house of commons and that the reasonable expenses of the lord mayor and the civic officials be defrayed from the borough fund."

SUPERFLUOUS INFORMATION

It Was Unnecessary to Say These Heirs Were Indignant.

Buchanan, Mich., April 4.—Hodson Burton, before his death five years ago, took the novel method of telling where his wealth of several thousand dollars was hidden by talking into a phonograph and having the record filed away with his will in a lawyer's safe. Here it was to remain for five years. The will told the heirs he had planted his fortune and his own voice would tell them the exact location.

Yesterday the heirs gathered at the home of his son, Luke Burton, to hear what the phonograph had to say. When they had all seated themselves, the arrival of the lawyer with the record was announced. He unwrapped the precious article in the kitchen. Each one in the parlor craned his neck, held his breath and gazed at mental pictures of mansions, motor cars and aeroplanes.

Just as the lawyer stepped through the door into the room where they were, he carelessly tripped over a footstool, fell and broke the record into so many pieces that it was impossible to get it to say a word. The heirs are indignant.

AGAINST RAILROADS

Two Important Decisions Rendered by the Supreme Court.

Washington, April 4.—In two very important decisions just rendered the United States supreme court has upheld the government and ruled against the railroads.

One opinion gives vitality to the commodities clause in the Hepburn railway act amending the interstate commerce act; the other holds that "forwarding companies" are entitled to the rates given for "carload shipments" in the freight classification territory east of the Mississippi river and north of the Ohio. Both opinions were ready by Chief Justice White and concurred in by the entire court.

They Let Him Go.

Laredo, Tex., April 4.—Salvador Madero, the brother of Francisco Madero, the brother of Francisco I. Madero, sr., and uncle of the provisional president of Mexico, who was arrested upon his arrival in Nuevo Laredo, across the river in Mexican territory, was released upon order from the City of Mexico.

Albany, N. Y., April 4.—The sword presented to General George Washington by Frederick the Great was found undamaged under a heap of charred books in the ruins of the library after the fire at the state capitol.

WILL OPPOSE WILL OF BIG OIL MAGNATE

H. Clay Pierce Finds a New Antagonist.

New York, April 4.—"Lady Betty" Perry Beatrice Faulkner Chapman Pierce, wife of Roy, the son of Henry Clay Pierce, millionaire oil producer of Texas, has declared her intention to begin a contest to regain her husband from Dr. MacDonald's sanatorium. She drew a sharp breath and added, straightening up with determination, "I am going to get back my husband."

Those blue eyes, with lights of agate green in them, which men of consequence in various countries have been mad about, shone with an emotion.

"I love my husband, and I shall get him back. It's shameful to say that any money settlement has been proposed to me. There will be no money settlement. Money is nothing when you have sufficient to get along; but love—that is everything."

WIDE PROGRAM NOW PROPOSED

Congress May Not Stick to Subject of Call.

THINGS CALL FOR ACTION

With the Convening of the Special Session Called to Consider Canadian Reciprocity, It Is Apparent That Other Objects Will Demand Attention and That the Congress Is Likely to Be in Session All Summer.

Washington, April 4.—President Taft's message to congress, which assembled in extra session today, is to be exceedingly brief, dealing only with Canadian reciprocity. It will be sent to congress tomorrow.

Washington, April 4.—With the Democrats in control of the lower house for the first time in sixteen years, the special session of the Sixty-second congress called by President Taft to consider the subject of reciprocal trade relations with Canada, was convened today.

Organization was effected by the election of Representative Champ Clark of Missouri, speaker; South Trimble of Kentucky, clerk; U. S. Jackson of Indiana, sergeant-at-arms; Joseph J. Sinnott of Virginia, doorkeeper; William M. Dunbar of Georgia, postmaster, and Rev. Henry N. Couden of Michigan, chaplain. The Republican vote was cast for James R. Mann of Illinois for speaker.

Outline of the Program.

Everybody here realizes that the legislative program laid down by the Democrats means that congress will be here all summer unless the Republicans in the senate shall consent to accept the major part of this program. The present indications are that the Republican senate will be opposed to nearly every legislative proposition put forward by the Democrats. This is certainly true as far as the conservative wing of the Republican majority in the senate is concerned. It is possible that a joint resolution submitting an amendment to the legislation providing for the election of senators by direct vote may be put through the senate after it has been adopted by the house. The insurgent Republican senators are committed to such a resolution, and in co-operation with the Democrats to pass it.

The long drawn out fight in the senate will be over Canadian reciprocity and the revision of the textile schedules, and possibly other schedules of the Aldrich-Payne tariff law. It is the program of the Democrats to put tariff ahead in the house of representatives. Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee believes the house will send a bill putting into effect Canadian reciprocity, and a bill revising the wool schedule over to the senate not later than the middle of May. He wishes to get some of the tariff legislation to the senate by May 1, if possible.

It is proposed by the Democratic house to pass with promptness a resolution approving the constitution of the new states of New Mexico and Arizona. Some of the Democrats in the senate, notably Senator Bailey, are opposed to this house program. Senator Bailey has given notice that he will oppose the approval of the Arizona constitution as long as it contains a provision for the recall of judges.

Certain Inquiries on Foot.

The Democrats in the house will not run wild on investigations, but it is proposed to institute certain inquiries. The first of these will have to do with the executive departments, and will relate specifically to expenditures. These investigations are to be made by committees that have heretofore been regarded as inactive, committees that have gone under the title of "committees on expenditures in the departments."

Some of the more important of these investigations, if they are made, will be in the charge of members from Indiana. Representative Cox is the new chairman of the committee on expenditures of the treasury department, Representative Moss chairman of the committee on expenditures in the agricultural department and Representative Cline chairman of the committee on expenditures on public buildings. Each of these chairmen is already planning an inquiry.

The Democrats in the house propose to proceed with caution. Every important piece of legislation reported by a committee will be submitted to a caucus of all the Democratic members before it is brought into the house. This policy will be pursued throughout.

The Republican Caucus.

Washington, April 4.—The party caucus of Republican members of the house of representatives held here last night was a fairly harmonious gathering. Representatives James R. Mann of Illinois was named as minority leader. There was no opposition to his candidacy.

Representative Currier of New Hampshire was re-elected chairman of the caucus and Kendall of Iowa secretary. Representative Dwight of New York was re-elected Republican whip.

Auto Racing as a Sport

GOLD LURES CHAMPION BACK
Purse of $25,000 at Indianapolis Speedway in May Proves Siren Song for Louis Chevrolet.

Indianapolis, Ind.—The lure of gold and glory is proving too strong for another of the great champions who had dropped from the limelight in the world of sport and announced his voluntary retirement from the hazardous motor racing game. The last of these past masters who will try to "come back" is Louis Chevrolet, the famous Franco-Swiss pilot of racing automobiles, who has, until recently, held the road race record of America, and who sprang into sudden fame by winning the Cobe Trophy over the Crown Point Course in Indiana in the 1909 season.

Chevrolet, according to persistent rumor, will don racing togs again this year for one event, that being the 500-mile International Sweepstakes Race on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Memorial Day, May 30. The offer of $25,000 in gold, with a capital prize of $10,000 to the winner of the classic, has proven too much for the daring Chevrolet, and despite his thrilling experience in the Vanderbilt Cup Race last October, when his car left the course and dashed through the fence, killing his mechanic, it is given out on good authority that Chevrolet will be seen on the Indianapolis brick track in May.

LONG AUTO RACE TO BE RUN
Motors Will Travel 500 Miles at Indianapolis Speedway Memorial Day for $25,000.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Marking a new epoch in the history of the hazardous sport of motor racing, Decoration Day at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway brings with it the greatest automobile contest ever staged. More than thirty of the master speed creations of America and Europe will grind off 500 miles over the two and a half mile brick course starting at ten o'clock in the morning and ending probably at about five o'clock in the afternoon. This is the longest race ever planned and the fortune in gold which is offered to the successful contestants, $25,000, is the largest ever offered for any one event since the beginning of the conflict of men and metal. Seven hours of continuous driving is what the fearless pilots will go through to win the fortunes in precious metal which await the winners. The first prize is $10,000, while nine others range from $5,000 down to $500. In addition the side offers which are being made will bring the entire purse up to about $40,000. This means that the winner will be richer by about $15,000 after the race is over.

ETTA L. JOHNSON GIVEN CLEAN BILL

Charge of Murder Against Spiceland Woman is Dismissed in Henry Circuit Court.

PROSECUTOR PREPARES NOLLE

Other Attorneys Agree Evidence is Not Sufficient to Warrant Trial For Slaying Husband.

Prosecuting Attorney Evans Monday filed a written motion in the circuit court in New Castle asking that the charge of murder against Mrs. Etta Johnson of Spiceland be dismissed. Mrs. Johnson was placed under arrest last fall after the death of her husband, George E. Johnson in New Castle after a short illness.

It was charged that Mrs. Johnson administered carbolic acid to her husband to cause his death and thus obtain $12,500 life insurance which was carried on his life.

After the burial of Johnson at Linden the body was exhumed and an autopsy was held. It revealed a quantity of carbolic acid in the stomach and other organs and Mrs. Johnson was arrested.

She remained in jail for several weeks and was then released after habeas corpus proceedings were heard in the circuit court. Judge Jackson held the evidence was not sufficient and Mrs. Johnson has since been at her home in Spiceland, where she moved from New Castle after her husband's death.

Brothers of Johnson at Crawfordsville employed former Representative Barnard to assist the State and after a thorough examination, Mr. Barnard decided with Prosecutor Evans that the evidence was not sufficient for the State to safely enter into a trial, and the written motion to dismiss, which was filed yesterday, states this and other facts.

Public opinion has turned largely in Mrs. Johnson's favor and many now believe Johnson committed suicide through despondency over ill health. The Johnsons moved to New Castle from Crawfordsville a short time prior to Johnson's death.

New Contracts.

At the last meeting of the city council the city treasurer was ordered to make new contracts for the use of the city water, in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance on that subject. Heretofore any one could contract for water, but beginning on May 1st next, the expense for water will be charged to the owner of the property, who will be required to sign a contract therefor.
